

Kerpoof Lesson Plan: Metaphors in Fairy Tales Rubric

Category	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Below Expectations
Assignment is complete, correct and legible	All questions are answered. The heading is complete. The assignment was neatly done. All words are spelled correctly and correct punctuation is used.	All questions are answered. The heading is complete. The assignment is legible. There are few (fewer than three) spelling/punctuation errors.	Assignment is not complete or is not legible. Heading is not complete. There are more than three spelling/punctuation errors.
Reading Comprehension	Identifies the three most important objects, events or characters in the story.	Identifies three objects, events or characters in the story.	Objects, events or characters chosen are not part of the story or are not correctly names.
Metaphor Understanding	The meanings assigned are clear and tie to a clear and relevant message for the story as a whole.	Explanations make sense and are tied to the message of the story.	Explanations don't tie to a larger picture or are vague or unsupported. No clear overall message tied to explanations.